- 1 cup Full fat greek yogurt
- 1/2 teaspoon garlic powder
- 1/2 teaspoon dried parsley
- 1/2 teaspoon dried thyme
- 1/2 teaspoon sea salt
- Freshly ground black pepper

Instructions

1. Heat the oven and prepare the baking sheet. Preheat the oven to 425 degrees. Line a baking sheet with foil and spray with cooking spray or rub with a little avocado oil.
2. Cut the eggplant. Peel eggplant and cut into french-fry shapes, about 1-inch-thick.
3. Season. Place the eggplant in a large bowl, sprinkle with the salt, and toss to combine.
4. Prepare the cheese mix. Combine the almond flour and parmesan cheese in a gallon-sized plastic bag. In a small bowl mix the egg white with a fork until the egg turns foamy. Set aside.
5. Dip the eggplant sticks in egg white. Dip eggplant sticks into the egg white and turn to coat, do this with all stick then place into gallon bag with the cheese mixture.

6. Coat the eggplant fries. Seal the bag and shake to evenly coat the eggplant fries with the cheese mixture.
7. Roast. Remove the eggplant sticks from the bag, gently shaking off excess crumbs, and place in a single layer on the prepared baking sheet. Spray with another coat of cooking spray. Sprinkle with more salt. Roast, flipping the sticks every 5 minutes, until golden-brown and crisp, about 15 minutes total.
8. Make the yogurt dip. While the eggplant fries are roasting, place the yogurt, garlic powder, dried parsley, dried thyme, salt, and pepper in a small bowl and whisk to combine. Serve the yogurt dip with the warm eggplant sticks.
