Recipe for: Southern Tofu Scramble

INGREDIENTS

(SERVING SIZE BASED ON: SOTA RECOMMENDED AMOUNT)

Scramble

- ½ lb (8 oz.) extra firm tofu
- 1-2 tbsp. avocado oil
- 1/2 red onion (sliced)
- ½ red pepper (thinly sliced)
- 2 cups kale (chopped)

Sauce

- ½ tsp salt
- ½ tsp garlic powder
- ½ tsp cumin powder
- ¼ chili powder
- Water to thin
- ¼ tsp turmeric (optional)
- Hot sauce (optional)
- Cilantro (optional)

INSTRUCTIONS

Pat tofu dry & roll in a clean, absorbent towel with something heavy on top, such as a skillet for 15 min. While tofu is draining, prepare sauce by adding dry spices to small bowl & adding enough water to make a pourable sauce. Set aside. Prep veggies & warm a large skillet over medium heat. Once hot, add 1-2 tbsp. avocado oil and the onion & red pepper. Season with a pinch each salt & pepper and stir. Cook until softened, about 5 min. Add kale, season with a bit more salt & pepper, and cover to steam for 2 minutes. In the meantime, unwrap tofu & use a fork to crumble into bite sized pieces. Use a spatula to move the veggies to one side of pan and add tofu. Sauté for 2 min then add sauce, pouring it mostly over the tofu and a little over the veggies. Stir immediately evenly. Cook for another 5-7 min until tofu is slightly browned!
