
Recipe for: SOTA's Thai Meat Balls

INGREDIENTS:

(SERVES 2)

1 lb. (16 oz.) ground pork

½ yellow onion, minced

1 tablespoon fresh ginger, grated

½ tablespoon fish sauce

1 teaspoon ground black pepper

1 tablespoon coconut oil

1 cup green cabbage

1 tbsp butter or coconut oil

Pickled onion salad

¼ cup scallions

½ tablespoon rice vinegar

1 tablespoon water

¼ teaspoon salt

½ red chili pepper

Thai Basil Sauce

1 oz. radishes

6 tablespoons mayo

salt and pepper

1 tablespoon fresh thai basil, finely chopped

INSTRUCTIONS:

Slice the chili pepper and scallions for the pickled onion salad. Mix rice vinegar, water and salt in a small bowl. Add chili and scallions and set aside for 5-10 minutes. Chop radishes finely and mix with the Thai basil and mayonnaise. Add salt and pepper to taste. Reserve. Preheat the oven to 200°F. Mix all meatball ingredients. Shape into balls. Fry in oil until thoroughly cooked and golden brown. Keep warm in the oven. Shred the cabbage, fry in butter or oil in a large skillet placed on medium high heat. Stir occasionally until the cabbage is browned. Season with salt and pepper. Plate the cabbage with the meatballs on top and serve the sauce and pickled onions on the side
