SOTA Campfire Foil Dinner

Recipe makes 1 protein and vegetable serving

Ingredients:

- 1 cup cabbage, chopped
- ½ green bell pepper, diced
- ½ cup zucchini, cut in rounds
- Jalapeños, chopped (seeds removed for less spice)
- 1 tsp onion powder
- Sprinkle of salt and pepper
- Sprinkle of garlic powder
- Pinch of thyme, optional
- 1-2 Tbsp avocado oil
- Pederson's kielbasa sausage (your individual protein serving size, cut in rounds ⅓" thick

Directions:

- Preheat the oven to 400˚F.
- Lay a 14-inch piece of aluminum foil out.
- Place all the vegetables down in a pile in the middle of the foil. Sprinkle them with all the seasonings and drizzle with the oil.
- Place the chopped sausage on top of the vegetable pile.
- Close the foil packets tight at the top so no air can escape.
- Bake in the oven for 35 minutes.
- Once packets are done cooking, open and top with fresh herbs (parsley, mint, cilantro) and enjoy!

Pro Tip:

- ➔ Make these foil pouches based on your SOTA dinner serving size.
- ➔ Use any 2 cups of your favorite approved vegetables.
- ➔ Make as many as you would like, store in a Tupperware in the fridge for up to 5 days.
