SOTA's Easy Meal Prep Pulled Pork

Slow Cooker/ Pressure Cooker/ Stove top

Recipe makes 4, 4 oz of animal protein servings

Ingredients:

- 16oz, (1lb.) pork shoulder
- 1 cup Walden Farms BBQ sauce, flavor of your choice
- ¼ cup water

Spice Rub Ingredients:

- 2 tsp salt
- 2 tsp pepper
- 1/2 Tbsp garlic powder
- 1/2 Tbsp onion powder
- 1/2 Tbsp chili powder
- 1/2 Tbsp smoked paprika

Directions:

- Mix all the spice rub ingredients together to make the rub.
- Cut the ribs in half and sprinkle them with the spice rub. Refrigerate for 4-24 hours.
- Take ribs out of the refrigerator 30 min before cooking.
- In a pan, cook both sides until brown, about 4 minutes per side.
- Then place them in the cooker of your choice, add the water and the BBQ sauce.
- When cooking is finished, shred with two forks or tongs and add back into the yummy juice.
- Enjoy immediately, refrigerate, or freeze the remaining for another day.

★ Slow cooker: Cook on low for 8-10 hours.

★ Pressure cooker: Cook on high pressure for 75 minutes and let it natural release.

★ Stove top: Cook in a pot with a lid on low heat for 1 1/2 hours. Check to make sure the liquid is still present halfway through cooking. Add ¼th cup more water if needed.
