CHICKEN FIESTA SOTA SOUP

CHICKEN INGREDIENTS

2 large skinless chicken breasts, cut into ½ inch strips

3 cups water

1 cup Walden Farms marinara sauce

2 jalapenos, remove seeds and dice

2 cups celery, chopped

4 cloves garlic, minced

TOP WITH

cilantro, avocado, tomatoes, onions

SOTA'S FIESTA SEASONING INGREDIENTS

1/4 cup chili powder

2 Tbsp ground cumin

1 Tbsp salt

4 tsp black pepper

3 tsp dried oregano

2 tsp paprika

1 tsp garlic powder

1 tsp onion powder

1 tsp parsley

DIRECTIONS

-The SOTA's Fiesta Seasoning make ¾ cup of seasoning. You will use 2 Tbsp in this recipe. Store the remaining in an airtight container or bag for later use.

-If you would prefer to use a premade mix, use Mexican Fiesta Seasoning (see photo above), add 1/2 tsp of salt to 2 Tbsp of the Fiesta seasoning.

1. Add all the SOTA's Fiesta Seasoning ingredients into a Zip Lock bag, set aside. 2. In the cooker pot, add the water, 1 Tbsp SOTA's Fiesta Seasonings (or Mexican Fiesta Seasoning), Walden Farms marinara sauce and stir. Taste the sauce and add more spice and salt if desired.
3. Rub the chicken with 1 Tbsp of Fiesta Seasoning.
4. Place the seasoned chicken, jalapeno, celery and garlic into the cooker pot.

• Slow Cooker: Cover and cook on low for 2 hours.

• Pressure Cooker: Cook on high pressure with valve closed for 30 minutes. Allow a natural release for another 6 minutes and follow with a quick release.

5. Once fully cooked and tender, shred the chicken and place back into the sauce. 6. Serve and top with fresh cilantro, chopped onions, fresh tomatoes and avocado. Enjoy!

Serving: makes 2 serving of 4oz of chicken
